Dear Sir

We have shipped the day before yesterday <sup>over</sup> the three paintings.

Oswald Achenbach, church festival in Naples Markt. 16000 Andrews Achenbach, Mill in the mountains 15000 and the same, 3 The Pier of Osterode (Moonlight Scene) 12000 over Bremen free of freights as required to the Corcoran Gallery of Art for approval.

as Dr. Welling has ordered us to do. We hope that the members of the Corcoran Gallery will make up their mind to buy the three pictures for the Gallery being first rate specimens all the three of the two artists. And taking a landscape of Andrews, the Gallery must also have a marine, to represent this kind of work of his.

However if the gentlemen should not decide to buy the Pier of Osterode you would be kind enough to tell the gentleman, who took an interest in the painting before of the pictures being there. Perhaps any arrangement

could be made, when this gentleman makes up his mind to buy the pictures. Mr. D. J. Partello, the U. S. Consul of our city takes a great interest in the three pictures coming into the Corcoran Gallery or remaining in Washington anyhow.

He says that none of the three pictures should be sent back and cross the ocean again.

The prices we named are the very lowest we can sell the pictures for and put on as low as we possibly could in order to compare the sale to the Gallery.

We remain dear Mr. Andrews with kind regards
Yours very faithfully
Edward D. Smith

My Dear Sir -

Yours of 28th to hand.
I think of ordering a "Sacred Bull", and would like very much to secure a copy of "The Trojan Horse." I could use it for my classes in Greek and Latin, and think it would pay you to have it photographed. The painting is such a fine piece of work, and so true to the reality, that classical teachers, I am sure, would be glad to have it.

Properly advertised, you might make a good thing of it.

Let me know if you care to photo it, and if so, the probable price. I should be willing to pay 10-20% more than for the regular price of the other pictures.

Very truly,
John Brigham.

My dear Sir

When in New York the other day I visited the great printing of Munkacsy which in my judgement is finer than Christ before Pilate.
My special object in writing you is in reference to a small printing by the same Artist which has not yet been seen.
It is a scene in a Conservatory with two figures and peculiarly adapted to the walls of the Corcoran Gallery. I enclose a couple of introductory tickets should any one go on from Washington and also a note to Mr Sedelmeyer whom I asked to retain the printing till I could write you. I think you would be pleased with the printing.

Yours sincerely,
C. B. Norton

Mr. W. W. Corcoran:

Dear Sir:

I have a bronze figure of Sparticus, by Foyatier, which cost 600f. in Paris twenty years ago and which would make a valuable addition to the art gallery. It is the model from which the artist made the life size figure in the Louvre, and I am reliably informed is the only Sparticus in this country. As a study of anatomy it is perfect. I wish to dispose of the piece as I am now in bad circumstances financially; in need of money and wish to leave the city, having lost my position in one of the departments. If you would like to see the piece I can send it to your residence and you will then be able to judge of it as a work of art. Your well known benevolence and love of art must be my excuse for addressing this letter to you

The figure is 30 inches high and weighs about 40 pounds.

Very respectfully
John M. Donaldson.
P.O. Box 68. City.
